

What a Picture

A collection of 10 modern art paintings by artists from Syria, Egypt Turkey, Iraq, France and Holland are estimated to sell for tens of thousands of pounds in the Charterhouse two day October auction pictures, sporting items and country house antiques.

“As a business based in Sherborne but with a global reach the owner of the pictures, the owner who lives in Sweden, contacted us as he thought we are the best place to sell them,” commented Richard Bromell. “It’s a fascinating collection of modern art and we recently had a huge success with a similar collection of paintings from a client in Sheffield. It is part of why I love my work so much, we do not just cover an area within a 50 radius of Sherborne!”

Included in the collection of pictures from Sweden is a portrait of Shivakiar Ibrahim. She was an Egyptian Princess who married Prince Ahmed Fuad who later became the King of Egypt. She obliged him to divorce her three years after the marriage and embarked in a series of matrimonial ventures which resulted in her having five successive husbands and four divorces.

Painted by Seif Wanly (Egyptian 1906-1979) the full length portrait measures 49 x 37 cm and is estimated to sell for £4,000-£6,000.
