

1905 Veteran Car Looking for a New Home

A 1905 De Dion-Bouton is being sold in the Charterhouse classic & vintage car auction being held at the Haynes Motor Museum on Thursday 27th June.

“Amazingly this little car has only had four owners in its 119 years,” commented Richard Bromell. “A rare survivor from early motoring this will grace any garage or collection.”

Powered by a single cylinder 942 cc engine the De Dion-Bouton has been enjoyed by all four owners. In 1994 it completed the John O’Groats to Lands End Rally, in 2000 the 1000-Mile Trial Centenary Run and in 2005 the London to Brighton Run by invitation.
