

Shiny Silver and Sparkly Diamonds

The Charterhouse two day auction in August includes a large collection of silver and a large collection of diamond jewellery including a whopping solitaire ring.

“The silver was collected over a number of years by the owner’s father,” commented Richard Bromell. “Sadly he has been ill and recently moved into a home. Whilst the client mentioned it was a large collection of silver, I did not expect to see such a huge variety of items and the collection is expected to sell for five figures.”

In the collection, which comes from a Somerset farmhouse, there are silver tea caddies, cutlery, baskets, vases and a huge variety of silver cream jugs from the 18th century onwards in all shapes, sizes and forms with estimates from £50 up to many £100’s.

However, if diamonds are more your thing, then a large diamond solitaire ring from a client in Rutland could be yours.

“When we look at diamonds it is all about the four C’s – Colour, Clarity, Cut and Carat and this ring certainly ticks all four boxes,” commented Naomi Grabham.

“Estimated at £6,000-10,000 the diamond ring is of good colour and clarity with no large inclusions, a brilliant cut measures and measures just over the magic number 3 carat in weight.”
