A classic 1950 Bentley saloon is entered into the Charterhouse online auction of classic and vintage cars on Wednesday 23rd September.

“Any classic Bentley is a piece of British motoring history and this saloon is no exception,” commented Richard Bromell. “With its super smooth lines and super smooth 6 cylinder engine this was the gentleman driver’s choice over its sibling Rolls-Royce back in the day.”

The Bentley was supplied to its first owner S C Joseph Clifford Motor Components (Birmingham) in February 1950.

Still a matching numbers Bentley 70 years later, the car was restored in the 1990’s. This included an engine rebuild, a bare metal respray, a retrim with Oxford hide with matching carpets and a new headlining. In addition, the walnut trim was also repolished.
