

Vintage to Modern Supercars at Car Auction

Motors from the 1920's through to the early 2000's are going under the hammer at the Charterhouse auction being held in a marquee in the beautiful grounds of Sherborne Castle on Sunday 16th July.

“This is a very busy time of the year for this department as vendors are looking to take advantage of the warm summer days to pull in bidders, with buyers looking to purchase vehicles as there is still plenty of good weather ahead to enjoy them!” commented Charterhouse classic and vintage car expert Matthew Whitney.

“However, this year, we have also opened up entries into the auction for modern supercars as well as the more traditional vintage and classic motors.”

The auction, which is held in conjunction with the hugely popular Classic & Supercar Show attracts a vast number of enthusiasts with about 2,000 classic, vintage and modern supercars vehicles on the day.

Entries for this specialist auction are well under way and * include a 12% Buyers Premium include VAT. These vehicles range from a 1927 Morris Oxford Supersport Special from near Exeter estimated at £18,000 - £22,000.
