

Delightful Deco Dining Room Suite at Charterhouse

A burr walnut dining room suite, dating back to the golden age of the 1930's, is just one of the highlights of the Charterhouse auction on Friday 18th January.

“The suite certainly has a Jeeves and Wooster feel about it and although it came from a client in Essex, it is just to sort of suite to have started life in Holland Park, London!” Commented Richard Bromell. “Today, these suites are all the rage again, especially if you have a 1930's property – there is simply no better way to dress such a house.”

The suite comprises a dining table, a set of 6 chairs with cloud shaped backs, a serving table and, of course, a cocktail cabinet. The high Art Deco design of the suite probably dates it to around 1930. Today suites which include all the main parts are hotly contested, with the Charterhouse set estimated at £4,000-6,000.

Part of the stylish Art Deco burr walnut dining room suite being sold by Charterhouse in Sherborne on Friday 18th January £4,000 - £6,000.

Viewing for this auction is on Wednesday 16th January 10-6 & Thursday 17th 10-5. Catalogues are available from the auctioneers or you can download and see the sale online at www.charterhouse-auctions.co.uk

Charterhouse is now accepting further entries for their New Year programme of auctions including an auction of silver, jewellery and antiques with a special selection of wine in February along with their specialist auction of classic cars and motorcycles in February.
