

Valentine's Day Treat at Charterhouse

It may not be the way people think of spending Valentine's Day, but the Charterhouse auction of classic and vintage cars on Sunday 14th February will be a treat for car lovers.

"We have a fantastic entry of cars into the sale with starter classics from just £500 up to thoroughbred sports cars for £50,000 with all lots totalling over an amazing £500,000," commented Matthew Whitney. "The classic car and motorcycle market continues perform very well which is why we are seeing so many high calibre vehicles coming to market."

Some of the more unusual vehicles entered into this Valentine's Day auction are a 1965 Austin Gipseys, with just 1,712 recorded miles for £9,000 - £11,000.

A 1973 Jensen Interceptor £18,000-22,000, a 1973 Citroen DS Safari, which has just completed an extensive 5 year restoration programme, £23,000-£25,000, a 2002 Jaguar XK8, purchased by its lady owner from Grange Jaguar in Exeter new for £51,000 and covered just 30,000 from new £9,500-£11,500.

A 1953 Austin cattle lorry, which has spent its entire life in Weston Zoyland going to Bridgwater Market, £9,000-£11,000.

Four Rolls Royce cars totalling over £85,000 and three Austin Healey 100's totalling over £100,000 along with other marques including Bentley, Austin, BMW, Datsun, Dodge, Ford, Hillman, Humber, Land Rover, Lotus, MG, Mini, Morris, Porsche, Sunbeam and VW.

One of four Rolls Royce's, £25,000- £30,000

Viewing for this auction, being held in conjunction with the Footman James Classic Vehicle Restoration Show at The Royal Bath & West Showground, Shepton Mallet BA4 6QN is on Saturday 13th February 10am-5pm and on the 14th from 10am with the auction starting at 12 noon. Alternatively, all lots can be viewed on www.charterhouse-auction.com

Charterhouse is now accepting further entries for their forthcoming auctions of classic and vintage cars and motorcycles.

For further information regarding these auctions, please contact Matthew Whitney, Head of Classic Cars at Charterhouse, The Long Street Salerooms, Sherborne 01935 812277 or email info@charterhouse-auction.com