

Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend

The Charterhouse auction of jewellery, silver, watches, antiques and interiors on Friday 16th February has some stunning diamonds in amongst its lots.

“Jewellery remains very popular at Charterhouse. More and more private clients have confidence to either view the auction or request photographs and then either bid in person, via the telephone or live on the internet.” commented Richard Bromell. “With hundreds of lots going under the hammer estimated from £50 to £8,000 there is certainly plenty of choice for buyers.”

Star lot is a stunning diamond riviére necklace estimated at £7,000-8,000. Entered into the Charterhouse auction by a client near Salisbury it has 111 diamonds mounted in fashionable 18ct white gold with a total diamond weight of approx. 7.5ct.
