

Marvellous Motors

There is a great selection of classic cars going under the Charterhouse gavel in their auction on 15th July.

“This will be our first classic car auction since the lockdown where buyers will be able to not only view all the vehicles, but also attend the auction subject to any restrictions,” commented Richard Bromell. “With a great line up and the sale being held at the prestigious Haynes International Motor Museum it looks to be a great auction.”

Included in the auction are classic cars in all shapes, sizes, conditions and values.

Estimated at £65,000-£75,000 is a 1962 Jaguar E-type Series I 3.8 fixed head coupe. From long term ownership this matching numbers E-Type is an early car from just the second year of production.

1962 Jaguar E-Type

From the 1980's there is a Porsche 911 Sport Targa. Finished in Grand Prix white with a blue leather interior and excellent service history this sadly comes from a deceased estate and is valued at £38,000-£42,000.

See below:-

1989 Porsche 911 Sport Targa

For just £2,000 less, there is a 2003 Noble M12 GTO 3R. With just two owners and under 20,000 miles, this supercar has a 0-60mph time of 3.5 seconds and a top speed of 185mph.

2003 Noble M12 GTO 3R

At the other end of the spectrum are a group of cars looking to be re-commissioned or restored. Here, there is a 1960 MG A 1600 Roadster being sold without reserve and estimated at £8,000-£12,000. From long term family ownership this Dorset car has previously been restored but the engine is now partially dismantled.

1960 MG A 1600 Roadster

Also from a deceased estate, this time in Somerset and also being sold without reserve, are a brace of 1950's black Citroen Traction Avant's. Both were imported from France some 30 years ago and shared the same garage for all this time.

A brace of 1950's Citroen Traction Avant's

Viewing for this auction is at Haynes International Motor Museum, Sparkford BA22 7LH on Wednesday 14th July and on the auction day, Thursday 15th with the first lot being sold at 12 noon. All lots can also be seen on www.charterhouse – auction.com where live internet bidding is also available.

Charterhouse are now accepting entries for their summer programme of auctions with silver, jewellery & watches on 5th August, wine, port & whisky on 6th August and automobilia & enamel signs on 18th August.

Richard Bromell and the team of experts at Charterhouse can be contacted for entries on 01935 812277 info@charterhouse-auction.com or via www.charterhouse-auction.com