

Racy Rolls Royce at Charterhouse

A 1930 Rolls Royce, from a deceased estate near Crewkerne, is entered in the Charterhouse auction of classic and vintage cars in February.

“It had particularly striking aluminium and fabric body which replicates the Sluggard built in 1911 by Rolls Royce to perform speed testing at Brooklands and managed just over the magic 100 mph,” commented Matthew Whitney. “It is an imposing motor car with the classic Rolls Royce chrome radiator topped off with a Spirit of Ecstasy mascot and ending in an aerodynamic tapered body.”

A 1930 Rolls Royce Sluggard Special
