

Silver Stars at Charterhouse

Henry Ford was famous for saying “People can have the Model T in any colour – so long as it’s black”, classic cars on Sunday 15th looks like you can have any lot as long as it is silver!

“Although silver is one of the most popular choices when choosing a new car, our classic vehicle auctions show us it has been a popular colour choice for decades!” commented Matthew Whitney

On Sunday 15th when Charterhouse has their classic car auction a 1979 silver Mini Special, produced to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Mini, goes under the hammer.

1979 silver Mini Special

One of just 5,100 such silver Mini Specials made, it is now one of only 20 believed to be left. Again coming to auction in a fully restored condition and yet still retaining all its original features such as the steering wheel unique to this edition, it is estimated at £6,000 - £8,000.
