

Super Samplers at Charterhouse

A collection of samplers and fans are included in the Charterhouse specialist auction of textiles on 3rd May in Sherborne.

“I have always been fond of textiles, with samplers in particular, despite having no sewing skills whatsoever!” commented Richard Bromell.

The samplers date from the 18th through to the 20th century. They incorporate animals, houses, letters of the alphabet, numerals, and other motifs.

Consigned from a collector in Salisbury, their naïve charm and technical expertise results in them having wide appeal amongst collectors today.

Charterhouse is now accepting further entries for their busy programme of specialist auction including textiles, silver, jewellery, watches, classic cars, and classic motorcycles over the next few months.
