

Buyers Need Help!

A rare Beatles record advertising poster, donated to the Dorset Blind Association, is valued at £1,000 in the Charterhouse specialist auction film posters and memorabilia on Wednesday 26th February in Sherborne.

“A rare vintage poster from 1965 this Beatles advertising poster for their record album Help! has survived the past 60 years in pretty good condition,” commented Richard Bromell.”

An iconic poster from the swinging sixties this Beatles British quad poster, valued at £1,000, was donated to the Dorset Blind Association (DBA) charity shop in Broadstone, near Poole, along with a group of film posters.

Thinking the Beatles and other posters could be valuable, the Dorset Blind Association in Broadstone contacted Charterhouse in Sherborne as they have a broad range of specialist auctions including film posters, vinyl records and memorabilia, where they were pleased to hear the collection of posters are expected to sell for over £2,000.

Richard Bromell and the Charterhouse Team can be contacted for valuations of film posters, vinyl records and other memorabilia at The Long Street Salerooms, Sherborne, 01935 812277 or via rb@charterhouse-auction.com
