

Dusty Looking Moggy

A 1966 Morris Minor, which has been stored in a stable for decades, is looking for a new home in the Charterhouse auction of classic & vintage cars on 27th March.

“I am more used to seeing cars stored in barns, sheds and garages so to find the Moggy resting in a stable makes a change!” commented Richard Bromell.

Family owned since 1978, this Morris Minor saloon previously drove around the quiet roads and lanes in Guernsey.

Covered in a thick layer of dust, it is remarkably solid underneath. Being sold without reserve as the family are moving house, it will be a good starter project.

Charterhouse are now accepting further entries for their auctions of classic & vintage cars on 27th March and for their specialist auction of Automobilia on 3rd April.
