

Howzat for a Cricket Collection

A lifetime collection of cricket memorabilia is being sold by Charterhouse in Sherborne in their 4th April specialist Sporting Auction.

The collection was amassed over many decades by the late Harry Brewer of Nether Compton," commented Richard Bromell. "Harry was a well-known and keen sportsman, but cricket was his main passion."

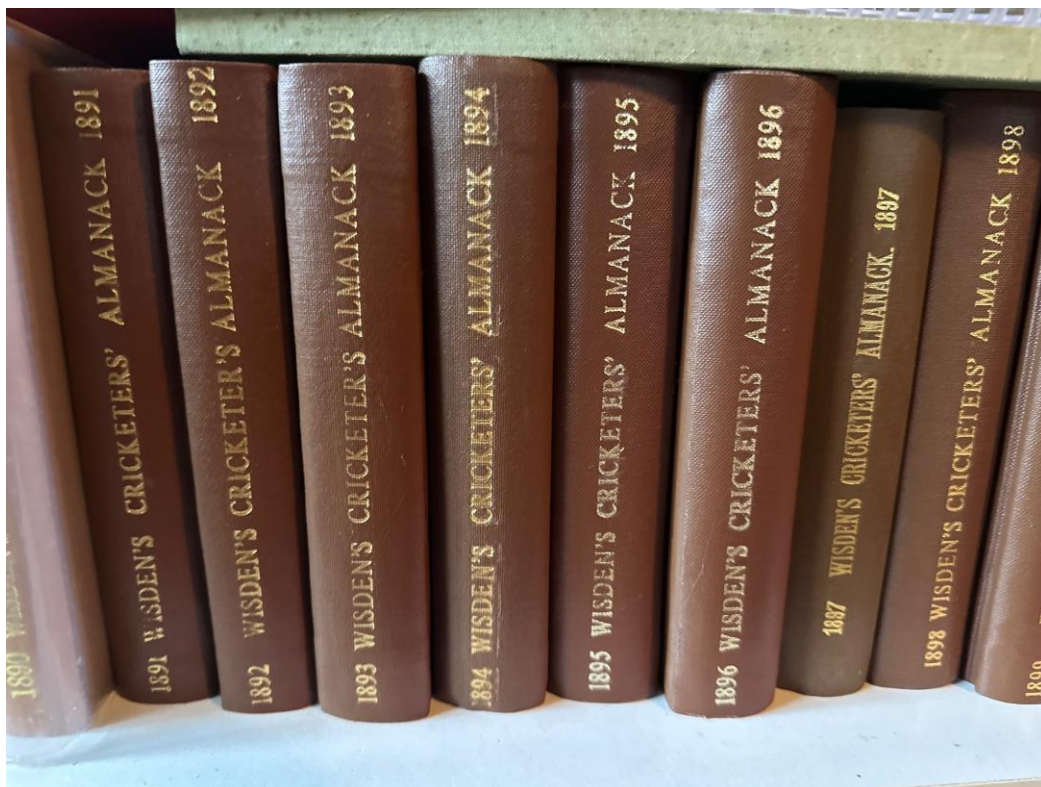

In the cricket memorabilia collection, which is all being sold without reserve, there are pottery figures, pictures, balls, bails and a vast library of specialist cricket books including a complete run of the famous Wisden Cricketers Almanacks dating from 1864 to 2021.

Part of the library of cricket books in the house

Some of the cricket prints hung in the house

Selection of early Wisden Cricketers Almanacks on a shelf in the house

Vanity Fair print of W G Grace

There are hundreds of lots from the collection which Charterhouse expect to sell for well over £10,000.

Charterhouse are now accepting entries for their forthcoming specialist auctions of sporting items, automobilia & enamel signs, classic cars, sporting items, pictures, watches and Asian art.

Richard Bromell and the Charterhouse Team can be contacted for advice and valuations at The Long Street Salerooms, Sherborne, 01935 812277 or via rb@charterhouse-auction.com