

Jeep Being Sold at Charterhouse to Benefit the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance

A classic military Jeep is entered into the Charterhouse auction of classic cars at the Haynes Motor Museum on Thursday 27th March with the owner kindly donating the proceeds of sale to the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance.

“The owner bought the Jeep from us nearly 20 years ago,” commented Richard Bromell. “Whilst he has enjoyed owning the Jeep he has not used it since 2020 and decided to auction it and give the proceeds to this worthy charity.”

1957 Hotchkiss M201 Jeep being sold without reserve by Charterhouse in March with the proceeds of sale being donated to the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance.

Made by Hotchkiss under licence from Jeep in 1957, this model M201 was the standard light utility used by the French army from shortly after WWII until production ended in 1966 with the last M201 came out of service in 2000.
